Sacked BSF jawan moves SC against EC decision to cancel his candidature

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, May 6

SACKED BSF JAWAN Tej Bahadur Yadav on Monday moved the Supreme Court challenging the Election Commission's decision to cancel his candidature from the Varanasi Lok Sabha constituency from where Prime Minister Narendra Modi is contesting. He was fielded by the Samajwadi Party as its candidate from the Varanasi seat.

Yadav was sacked from service after he posted a video on social media in January 2017 about the watery dal and burnt rotis served to soldiers. The video was viewed more than 70 lakh times, prompting the Prime Minister's Office to ask for a report. Yadav was dismissed after a court of inquiry

Yadav was dismissed after a court of inquiry found him guilty on charges of indiscipline for going public with his grievances found him guilty on charges of indiscipline for going public with his grievances.

Yadav, in his plea, termed the decision of the poll panel discriminatory and unreasonable and said it should be set aside.

The SP had initially fielded Shalini Yadav as its candidate to contest against Modi and later nominated the sacked BSF jawan.

The poll panel had dismissed Yadav's nomination on Wednesday.

He was served notices by the Varanasi returning officer over discrepancies in the two sets of nomination papers submitted by him.

In the first set of papers on April 24, he had mentioned that he was dismissed from the Border Security Force.

On April 29 he submitted a second set of papers as the SP nominee, but did not give out this information.

He was also required to submit a no-objection certificate from the BSF, giving reasons for his dismissal.

Yadav had accused the BJP of resorting to "dictatorial steps" to stop him from fighting elections.

"My nomination was rejected today even though I had furnished the NOC from BSF that was required by the RO, he had claimed.

"I was asked to produce the evidence at 6.15 pm yesterday [Tuesday], we produced the evidence, still my nomination was rejected," he had said on May 1.
